ORDER

This cause came on to be heard on the 9th day of July, 2010, before the Honorable Darryl Edmondson, Judge of the Juvenile Court for Union County, Tennessee, on the Emergency Petition filed by Kristin N. Morgan, with simultaneous hearing with the District Court, 345th Judicial District, Travis County, Texas. Upon the case being called, testimony of witnesses, examination of exhibits, argument of counsel, and the record as a whole, the Court finds as follows:

1. That an emergency exists requiring Tennessee to issue a Temporary Order for the protection of the child, to remain in place until the matter can be heard by the Travis County, Texas Court, and an Order be set in place. Until otherwise ordered, a no-contact Order is issued between the parents.
2. That the child remain in the residential care and custody of the Mother, with the Father being allowed co-parenting time with the parties' minor child.

3. That Texas is the home state of the parties' child, Hannah Elizabeth Morgan, and the final decision concerning custody of the parties' minor child will be made in that jurisdiction.

4. That the Father shall be entitled to an initial two (2) week co-parenting time, with all co-parenting arrangements to be made solely by the Guardian Ad Litem, Angela M. Blevins, Esquire. Once the co-parenting arrangements have been scheduled by the Guardian Ad Litem, the paternal Grandmother, Chris Morgan, or a designated relative, shall travel to Tennessee and pick up the child for the Father's two (2) week co-parenting time. The Father shall pay sixty percent (60%) percent, and the Mother shall pay forty percent (40%), of the travel expenses.

5. That neither party shall use alcohol or illegal drugs, or use prescription medication that is not prescribed for him or her.

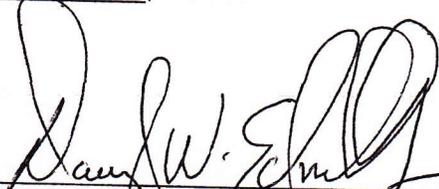

6. That all dogs owned by the Father, Joshua J. Morgan, shall not be inside the home while the Father is exercising his co-parenting time.

7. That at the conclusion of the Father's co-parenting time, the Mother, or her designated agent, shall return to Texas to pick up the child and return to Tennessee, with the costs being assessed at sixty percent (60%) to the Father, and forty percent (40%) to the Mother for travel expenses.

8. That after the initial two (2) week co-parenting time with the Father, the Father shall have the third week of every month thereafter for co-parenting time with said child. The third week of each month co-parenting time shall begin September 2010. This co-parenting arrangement will stay in effect until the appropriate Court in Texas has a hearing, and issues an Order declaring a different arrangement.

It is so ORDERED.

ENTER this 27th day of July, 2010.
